First schoolday

Dear Schreuder parents,

How wonderful to welcome you and all Schreuder students again this Monday! Throughout the summer holidays, people worked hard on the renovation of the school building. In the last weeks of the holiday, all teachers and other staff also worked very hard to give all the material from the Vlinderboom a nice place in Schreuder. Not everything is completely finished yet, but all classrooms are completely ready to receive the students at Schreuder.

On Monday, all students are expected on the square in front of the school at 8.30 am. All teachers will be there to welcome them.

Sections are drawn on the square. There is a section for each group. The children gather in a row in their group's section. The parents are asked to wait along the facade on the other side of the street (behind the wide red border in the street work) or behind the playground.

Unfortunately, it is not possible for parents to enter the school due to the corona measures.

See the info below.

After the welcome speech, Femmie, the director, will let the groups enter the school one by one, under the guidance of the group teacher.

Great if you can be there! Remotely, though. We look forward to seeing you!

Corona measures

You will have followed the news about the corona virus through the media.

It ensures that the corona measures that applied before the summer holidays are continued after the holidays.

This means:

- Parents cannot enter the school building.
- With a cold: shortness of breath, fever, cough - stay at home and have it tested. (Deregister student by phone (8.00-8.30h))
- Keep 1.5 meters between adults, including at the schoolyard.
- Wash hands often with water and soap. At school we also let the students wash their hands often.
- When dropping off / collecting your child: wait behind the wide red border in the paving, behind the playground or behind the green hedge at the Van Gogh hotel.

We must do it together! And so far we as Schreuder have done very well. We hold on!

Lunch break

During the lunch break, the students stay at school. They eat their lunch in the classroom with their own teacher and play outside in front of the school, under the supervision of TSO employees.

Group	Time	What
Groups 1 t/m 5 (also uniQ)	12.00-12.30	Playing outside, under the supervision of TSO
	12.30-12.45	Eating lunch, under the supervision of the teacher
Groups 6 t/m 8 (also uniQ)	12.15-12.30	Eating lunch, under the supervision of the teacher
	12.30-13.00	Playing outside, under the supervision of TSO

Remote communication

Due to the corona measures, it is unfortunately not possible to allow communication between school and parents physically at school, at least until September 1. As much as possible we will use email for contact between the individual parent and the group teacher or telephone (for reporting sick between 8.00-8.30 am) or video calling for communication with a group of parents and school.

The general parents' evening is scheduled for Tuesday, August 27. Earlier in that week you will receive a link by email to view and listen to the presentation of the school. In that email you will also be asked if you want to use a live connection on Tuesday 27 August, from 7-8 pm. You can then look back on the presentation with Femmie and the other parents and post your questions or comments.

In the next Newsletter (Fri. 28-08) you will be further informed about the other information moments (the information mornings per group and the individual Start-KOM conversations).

Healthy food and drinks

Our school is an environment where healthy eating should be easy, as this contributes to the development of the students. We take a positive approach, so that no one needs to feel excluded or judged. Eating healthy is about taking care of yourself. We think it is important that there is healthy food and drink at school during breaks, lunch, during outings and during treats, so both food and drinks taken to school and offered to the students. At school, the students learn about healthy behavior and during eating moments they can put this into practice. This is how theory and practice meet.

Breakfast

The school assumes that when the child comes to school, it will have already had breakfast at home. Breakfast stimulates digestion and ensures that a child gets important nutrients. A good breakfast also provides energy for the required concentration at school. In addition, a child has less appetite for “something in between” during the morning after having breakfast. We regularly bring the importance of a healthy breakfast to the attention of parents and children.

Morning and lunch breaks

The children eat healthy food during breaks.

For the 10 am break, the children eat:

- fresh fruit and / or vegetables,
- nuts (without additions),
- dried fruit,
- yoghurt without sugar.

The children drink water, tea (without sugar) or semi-skimmed milk, buttermilk, rice milk / soy milk without additives, from a self-brought cup.

The children do NOT eat cookies, sweets or chips.

On Wednesdays the children spend a long morning at school and before they get home for lunch it is quite a long time. They are allowed to bring fruit with them on Wednesday, and eat fruit first, then they can eat a sandwich or a (rice) cracker.

By eating enough lunch, children are able to concentrate properly in the afternoon. The content of the lunch box also determines the performance during the afternoon classes.

A healthy lunch box contains:

- bread (preferably whole grain),
- raw food and / or fruit.
- (rice) crackers, with healthy toppings or plain.

The children drink tea, water or semi-skimmed milk, buttermilk, rice milk, soy milk without additives.

No biscuits, sweets or chips. A well-fitting bread bin keeps the bread tasty for longer and prevents it from drying out. We leave the choice of bread topping to the parents.

If our healthy food policy is not complied with, the food / drinks brought will be returned to the child's bag with a reminder note. The teacher addresses the parent about this. The child gets a cracker the first time, we hope it doesn't happen again after that. If it happens more often, we invite the parent for a meeting with possibly the management.

Children's birthday

Often a child has been looking forward to his / her birthday for months, and for him / her it is the highlight of the year. The Schreuder Institute, however, believes that the birthday boy or girl is central and not the treat. The ritual of the birthday creates the party, such as singing songs, the fake cake, the crown and visiting all other groups (during the corona measures, the birthday is only celebrated in the own group). At Schreuder we find that more important than the treat itself.

We keep the treats healthy and small. It's nice when it can be eaten right away. You can find examples on the internet.

The teachers like to set a good example, could you give something healthy for the teachers too, or the same as for the children?

Special occasions

The Schreuder team has the opinion that exceptions should be made on special occasions with regard to the healthy food and drink policy. With special occasions we mean, for example, school trips, themes and holidays. Since it is for a special occasion, these "extra things" are special. It is important not to let them become "normal". The school itself provides a little treat during these holidays and school trips.

Our new Intern Supervisors introduce themselves:

Dear students, parents, carers of Schreuder primary school,
My name is Rebecca Verdellen. On Monday I will start as an intern supervisor at Institute Schreuder. I am very happy that I can strengthen the team and I'm looking forward to start at Schreuder school. I have extensive experience in education as a teacher and now for several years as an intern supervisor. My tasks as a intern supervisor are mainly to coordinate care in the regular groups. This includes: supporting teachers in guiding students; analyzing tests; talk to teachers about the outcomes and the socio-emotional development of students in the classroom; conversations with parents about and with individual students who need extra care; inform teachers about new developments; coordinate and attend conversations with external organizations such as psychologists, remedial educationalists, speech therapists, occupational therapists, the Youth Care Agency and the GGD; I also participate in the networks IB of Amos. This is just a summary of the many varied activities. In short, a very comprehensive and engaging function. I am present on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Verdel

For the uniQ groups, Ria van Gerven will work as an intern supervisor at Schreuder. She works here on Mondays and Fridays. She will introduce herself to you in a future Newsletter.

We are very happy with our new IB-ers!

Childcare Kleintje Zuid

Dear parent (s), caregiver (s) of Schreuder primary school,

And then the time has come again... After a sunny summer vacation, the school will start next Monday, August 17. Meanwhile, the renovation of KleintjeZuid Museumkwartier is in full swing and we are working very hard in collaboration with the school to welcome the children to a brand new location from 14 September!

We are very enthusiastic and we can imagine that you, parents and children, are very curious about what the group rooms will look like.

Until the opening, in mid-September, from Monday 17 August we will take care of “a bus full” of children every day, at our NSO location on Amstelveenseweg. What a joy to get to know these children.

In addition to the first registrations and guided tours, several children have also gotten used to a day at KleintjeZuid and together with these “VIP Museum Quarter guests” ;-) we are inspired to create an amazingly fun, new, energetic, safe and warm environment in which every child can develop optimally with pleasure. Due to the Covid 19 measures it is unfortunately not possible to quickly walk in for a sneak preview, but during the month after school you are always welcome for a tour by appointment.

For registrations and more information about our offer and policy, please visit our website www.kleintjezuid.nl or contact our planning department via planning@kleintjezuid.nl or 020- 2089920.

The countdown begins... Follow the renovation to the opening of KleintjeZuid Museumkwartier via Instagram and Facebook #laterbegintvandaag.

We look forward to welcoming you and your children!
